Wade Blackwell
President & CEO

Blackwell Professional Security and Concierge Services was founded in 1999 by President and CEO Wade Blackwell. BPSS., Inc.'s mission is to validate the way security and concierge services are performed, making a positive impact on customer's revenue growth, sustainability, and shareholder value.

Missy Blackwell
CFO & Director of HR

Blackwell began with a mandate to be different and infinitely better by defining the Blackwell look for professional security and concierge services. The look reflects the promise to serve with diligence and perform with expertise. Attendants meet their public in tailored suits, shirt and tie, patent leather polished shoes; strict attention to appearance establishes credibility and instills confidence.

Chelsea Snyder
Operations Manager

Blackwell's goal is to accommodate our client's every request and exceed their expectations, ultimately providing them a superior experience. With an established reputation for dedication, loyalty and honesty, we have become one of the most desired Security, Lobby Services, Concierge Services, and Executive Protection providers in the Midwest.
